

Tips for Teachers

Find resources on the TC² website that will help you bring critical thinking to your classroom

Looking for resources?

The TC² website has a treasure trove of resources, but when you're new to the site, how do you find what you're looking for? We'd like to help you get started.

Are you looking for ...	Check out
A quick summary of the online teaching resources that you can access because your district is a Partner with TC ²	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Overview of our resources▶ Slide show - Online resources from TC²
Lessons to teach thinking tools that can be used across the curriculum	▶ Eight great tools lists lessons useful across the curriculum and will give you a good idea of the quality and helpfulness of the materials available.
Simple ways to tweak questions and activities you're already doing so they are more engaging and require your students to think more critically	▶ Ten tweaks for your questions
Ideas for primary students	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Critical thinking with early primary students▶ Thoughtful Books▶ Critical challenges: Choose the "Primary" tab for each subject area
Pictures to teach social studies and science	▶ Picture Sets
Primary documents to teach Canadian history	▶ History Docs
Critical thinking lessons for a specific grade range and subject area e.g., critical thinking and literacy thinking critically in mathematics improving writing through critical thinking	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Click on "Refine search" under "Search our resources" in the box in the right column of any page. Select the grade level and subjects you're interested in, click submit and you'll get a list of lessons with descriptions to choose from.▶ Browse the Critical Challenges collection
Ideas to help you as an educational leader introduce other teachers to the resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none">▶ Taking advantage of your Partner benefits▶ Ongoing support for teachers▶ Library of professional resources