

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION

About this resource	iv
Overview of lessons	v
Guide to lesson format	vi
Introduction to critical thinking	viii

LESSONS

Launch lesson: What might meaningful reconciliation look like?	1
Line of inquiry 1: What is the relationship between Canada, Canadians, and First Nations, Six Nations, Métis, and Inuit?
Lesson A What powerful words and phrases best describe our relationships with each other?	6
Lesson B Which images describe our relationships with each other?	10
Lesson C How do we move forward from a challenging history?	14

Line of inquiry 2: What important lessons learned from past actions can help us contribute to meaningful reconciliation?
Lesson D Why did it happen?	20
Lesson E What were the consequences?	26
Lesson F What should we all know?	31

Line of inquiry 3: How might we contribute to meaningful reconciliation?
Lesson G How adequately have governments responded?	36
Lesson H What does it mean to reconcile?	41
Lesson I What can I do to support meaningful reconciliation?	45
Finale lesson: What might meaningful reconciliation look like?	49

SUPPORT MATERIALS (REPRODUCIBLE ACTIVITY SHEETS AND LEARNING MATERIALS)

List of briefing sheets, activity sheets, image sets, and source documents	51
--	----

IMAGE CREDITS

